ABOUT LUKE-

Luke was raised just outside of Kalamazoo Michigan but is now based out of Traverse City. From a young age Luke was obsessed with music, constantly listening to artists like Bruce Hornsby, Gordon Lightfoot, Tracy Chapman and Bruce Springsteen. He was classically trained vocally and taught himself to play the guitar, harmonica and the piano. He graduated from Hillsdale College in 2020 with a degree in Biology, but Luke's time amongst the music faculty at the college and his weekends gigging out around the state confirmed his vocation of being a musical artist.

Since then, Luke has played 250+ shows every year across the Midwest. He's a regular at The Tuscon Folk Festival, The Michigan Lottery Arts Beats and Eats Festival, The Dunesville Music Festival, at Concerts in the Park series across Michigan, and in cities like Nashville, Key-West, Atlanta, Detroit, Chicago and Fort Myers.

Luke's music is marked by his musicality with the harmonica and piano, and by the stories behind each song he writes which he bases off his time growing up in Michigan and from his travels across the U.S.

Coined as a Michigan-Americana artist, Luke has a song and a story for every mile of every road and he is as excited as a Labrador Retriever to share them.

Luke Woltanski Band:

A 4pc – 7pc setup depending on availability, Luke's band gives his Michigan-Americana sound a funky jam-band twist. Their sound is compared to The Grateful Dead and Steely Dan.
